Steven Wilkinson

VICE PROVOST FOR GLOBAL STRATEGY,
NILEKANI PROFESSOR OF INDIA AND SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES, YALE UNIVERSITY

“As Yale Center Beijing celebrates its 10th anniversary, it continues to reflect Yale University’s commitment to international engagement and partnership.

Serving as the University’s only center outside of its U.S. campus, the Center bridges Yale with China and the broader region while advancing the University’s mission of improving the world through collaborative research and scholarship. My visits to Beijing this year, among my first to mainland China, were met with a warm welcome from the Center’s staff and local friends of the university. The Center’s team has played a critical role in organizing my visits to partner institutions in the region. I have also found the openness and candidness of the dialogues that happened at the Center refreshing, especially in an international environment fraught with conflicts and uncertainties. I look forward to seeing how the Center will continue to enhance Yale’s global connections.”

Emma Sky

DIRECTOR OF THE INTERNATIONAL LEADERSHIP CENTER AT YALE JACKSON SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS, AND YUVAL BEN DAVID ’16, CHIEF STRATEGY OFFICER OF THE INTERNATIONAL LEADERSHIP CENTER AT YALE JACKSON SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS

“We could not be more grateful to the Yale Center Beijing (YCB) team, who went above and beyond in facilitating our productive visit to China and dynamic public events.

What struck me on this visit was that YCB is so much more than I expected – it is Yale’s embassy in Beijing, enabling critical people-to-people exchanges and providing an indispensable platform for dialogue. I left Beijing energized by the possibilities YCB affords us to fulfill Yale’s mission in the world.”

Bruno Angelet

AMBASSADOR OF BELGIUM TO CHINA

“The 400th Anniversary of Ferdinand Verbiest’s Birth event on 9 October 2023 was an undeniable success. Thanks to the great venue and technical support of Yale Center Beijing, our guests and Zoom attendees were able to enjoy the amazing conference by speakers onsite and online. Yale Center Beijing also offered most important help with the program and the catering. The event’s success is a testament to the exceptional teamwork, dedication, and enthusiasm you and your staff demonstrated.”

Sam Ahn ’25

WORLD TOUR MANAGER OF THE YALE WHIFFENPOOFS

“Yale Center Beijing was our first point of contact when the Whiffenpoofs decided to go to China. The Center immediately connected us with schools and institutions that enabled us to figure out all the logistics of bringing 13 college students to Beijing. And they didn’t stop there: they hosted us for a lovely public concert in their beautiful space and fed us some delicious Peking duck. It is no hyperbole to say that without Yale Center Beijing, we wouldn’t have been able to come to Beijing.”

Daniel Mattingly ’04, MA ’08

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL SCIENCE,
YALE UNIVERSITY

“I had a fantastic experience giving a talk to a packed house at Yale Center Beijing. The Center provides an important meeting place where Yale faculty can share research with the public in China and get to know people in academia, business, government, and non-profits. The Center’s work is especially important in an era of heightened U.S.-China tensions.”

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends of Yale Center Beijing,

As we celebrate our 10th anniversary in 2024, we reflect on a remarkable decade of excellence, collaboration, and intellectual exchange.

Founded on the centuries-old bond between Yale University and China, Yale Center Beijing (YCB) has grown into a global hub, bridging not just China and the U.S., but also Europe, South Asia, Africa, and the Middle East, as Yale University's only university-wide center outside of the U.S.

We extend our profound gratitude to our visionary founding donor, Neil Shen, whose generosity has been instrumental to our success. Our sincere thanks also go to our Advisory Committee, supporters, and the entire Yale community for their invaluable contributions.

We deeply appreciate the leadership of Yale University and Yale School of Management (SOM), whose guidance has ensured we remain true to Yale's mission and values. Additionally, I would like to personally thank my colleagues at YCB for their unwavering dedication and hard work.

As we face global challenges such as climate change and regional conflicts, we recognize the vital importance of providing a forum for meaningful dialogues among diverse voices.

We remain committed to expanding Yale's global impact and reinforcing our role as a bridge between cultures and ideas. Together, let us continue building a brighter future for humanity.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Carol Rafferty '00

“The program broadened my understanding of cognitive science beyond just neuroscience.

I used to think Functional Magnetic Resonance Imaging (fMRI) alone could explain brain functions, but I now see its limitations. This experience has shown me the value of a comprehensive approach and the importance of not taking our cognitive abilities for granted. Recognizing and mitigating instinct blindness has been a crucial insight. Thanks to the program, I now have a deeper, more mature perspective on cognitive science.”

EVENTS AND SPEAKER SERIES

“I’m delighted to share that I recently had the chance to visit the center in person. Last year, I had a virtual talk and expressed my hope to visit in person, and I’m thrilled that it finally happened. It was a fantastic experience, and I found the audience to be highly engaging and insightful.

The visit reinforced my appreciation for the center’s commitment to fostering meaningful discussions and connections.”
